Chapter 1 by Drew Johnson

The kingdoms are in dark times. The Wars upon greed is among them. But there is hope, a group of knights who bring kindness and compassion everywhere they go. we call them the brotherhood. they govern the land of the west. on the east there is an army of human monsters, people so evil that they take everything they can get their hands on and kill anyone in their way. we call them the order. An ancient land lies to the south. they are the Kingdom of Gourslentide. not much is known about the kingdom. their mystery is only outweighed by their magical powers. A human wizard from Gourslentide was bringing stolen magical weapons to the brotherhood believing all other armies to be corrupt. the man's name is Klotrone the wise. As Klotrone walked he got the feeling as though he was being watched yet there was no one around. He kept looking for somebody. the walk was longer than he expected. he started to wonder if it would be better to use a teleportation spell but quickly dismissed the idea incase any other Gourslentide wizards were tracking him. Then he heard a sound a few feet behind him. He turned around and saw nothing. he continued walking. he continued for 3 hours and kept looking back whenever he heard any noise at all.

As Klotrone got closer he felt more paranoid until a little goblin came from the woods asking for kobal's breath. kobal's breath is a magic potion that grants the drinker temporary happiness but drains their muscles and brain cells. Klotrone decided to use a fire ball to scare the little goblin away. the wizard used his See more of Story Wars the goblin had seen the fire and immediately ran away.
